for example, it could be at the same time as a provincial general election or held in conjunction with municipal elections, or it could be a stand-alone process.

in fact, in some cases these drugs have worsened the disease

(i have read up on both and it sounds like they have similar side effects)